

Guy's College Packing List

Heyy, it's Emily! I am so happy that you found this ultimate college packing list for guys! After my freshman year of college, I created a similar list for girls to make college packing MUCH easier. Now it's the most popular printable on my blog. After reflecting on my own experiences, talking to my guy friends, and doing some research, I put together this master list full of everything guys will need to pack for college. I hope that it helps you and happy packing!!

Key

Keep in mind that some items you need will depend on your school & the climate.

*=buy a size twin XL to fit most dorm room beds

=requires extra space in your room (I did not have these products freshman year and my room was perfectly fine!)
